Our Climate Emergency
By Bobbi Jo Chavarria and Mary Ann Ruiz

YOUTH leaders around the world organized the Global Climate Strike, with an estimated 7.6 million people participating worldwide. Here in San Gorgonio Chapter, Sierra Club members joined in solidarity with local youth leaders at strikes and climate events in Redlands, San Bernardino, Temecula, and Fontana.

Sadly, here in the Inland Empire, we have yet to see our elected officials take the Climate Emergency seriously. Suburban sprawl projects are in the works in areas already at risk for water shortages, traffic congestion, and long commutes. A project for 45,000 homes in Eastvale has begun, in Ontario over 11,000 single-family homes and 8,790 multi-family units have been approved as part of a 4,000 acre project which includes 14+ million square feet of industrial development. Local leaders must be held accountable to require sustainable building practices, such as no natural gas, solar panels on every roof and parking lot, and electric local transit options. Industrial development must come with local jobs for these new households to prevent long commutes. Sustainable water solutions, such as stormwater capture and native plant landscaping, must be included.

These two cities in the most densely populated areas have the opportunity to make this infill housing sustainable, with good local jobs to prevent long commutes. Leapfrog developments into our foothills, mountains and deserts present another problem, with no nearby jobs, destruction of habitat, and additional greenhouse gas emissions. These must be stopped.

There is hope! Melanie Fyda, a student at the University of Redlands writes of a partnership with Esri to gift a tree for planting to every elementary school student in the district. As she wrote, “Localized conservation efforts are a great way to tackle environmental issues on a local scale and allow people to create positive change.”

It is imperative, however, to move beyond the charitable acts and special programs of conservation and make the demand that our local governments center the Climate Crisis instead of pushing business as usual. In response to Sierra Club California’s resolution declaring a Climate Emergency, the San Gorgonio Chapter Executive Committee has established the Climate Emergency Ad-Hoc Committee to focus on the steps necessary to motivate our communities to shift priorities.

The downloadable booklet by Jane Morton, published in Australia by Darebin Climate Action Now, Making the Case for Emergency Climate Action, states: Messages calling for action by government have been found to receive more support than those calling for individual action. In one study, people who were less certain that climate change is a serious threat were found to be unresponsive to messages calling for individual action but more supportive of an active climate policy by government.

However, counting on elected officials to challenge the vested interests of their campaign donors and business leaders by taking the Climate Emergency seriously is not a strategy that has been working.

“We need leaders to step up, but they must hear a clear, strong emergency message coming from all sides before they will be willing to lead the public on emergency action,” writes Jane Morton.

The goal of the San Gorgonio Chapter Climate Emergency Ad-Hoc Committee is to partner with groups, ...

organizations and community leaders in a Climate Emergency Coalition to initiate a process throughout the Inland Empire to declare a climate emergency. In cities across the United States, including Los Angeles, Davis, Richmond, Oakland, Ojai, Petaluma, and others, councils have taken the first step to declare a climate emergency. Typical resolutions include setting up a process to develop an action plan and report back to the council within three to six months. Some areas have already begun implementing policies and allocating resources with both the urgency and scope that the emergency demands. For instance, Andy Shadrer, Director of Environmental Affairs, Water Policy & Sustainability for LA Countymember Paul Koretz, shared a presentation at the Sierra Club Conservation Committee Meeting in September, featuring programs such as City Blitz, Ecost Districts, The Cool Block, Cool City Challenge, and the Jobs Cabinet which is part of L.A.’s Green New Deal 2019 Sustainability Plan.

Folks cannot do that if they do not share the common task of overcoming the crisis. It is time for government action that people will mobilize to demand immediately the government must act every day. The actions of the legislature, the governor, and the president must be submitted to the appropriate Outings Chair.

The Palm and Pine is published six times per year January/February, March/April/ May/ June, July/August/ September/ October/ November and December. Submit all articles to the Editor by the 5th of the month prior to issue. Preferred format is electronic mail. The Editor reserves the right to edit all work for reasons of space, clarity or libel. If you wish to have your photos or disks returned, please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Outings must be submitted to the appropriate Outings Chair.

The efforts of the San Gorgonio Chapter of the Sierra Club to protect our local environment are overseen by a small group of elected Executive Committee members—four of whom are listed on the Chapter Ballot shown to the right. There are only four candidates, for four positions, which means that “everyone wins” as long as one voter casts a ballot with a check mark next to each candidate’s name. Please don’t assume that someone else is going to cast that ballot—that one voter might be you! And you don’t have to cut up your Palm and Pine, you can go online to the Chapter’s website and vote there. Also, if you are a member of the Los Serranos, Tahquitz, Mountains, Mojave, Big Bear, or Santa Margarita Groups you can vote in your Group’s election there as well. The members of our Chapter and Group Executive Committees are underpaid (never paid) and under-appreciated. This is your chance to let them know that you recognize and value their efforts.

Yosemite! There is Magic in That Name
By: Margaret Meyncke
Member, Santa Margarita Group

The Sierra Club logo still has a picture of Half Dome and a sequoia tree to remind us of our origins. My husband, John and I decided a volunteer experience for one week at the Sierra Club in Yosemite National Park (YNP) would be a great way to spend our anniversary, so we selected a week in August. It didn’t hurt that our daughter works inside the park and we could visit her as well.

We entered YNP on a Saturday from the eastern gate on Tioga Road after travelling up Historic Highway 395 past Lone Pine, Bishop, and Mammoth. What a view! The eastern Sierras are magnificent with Mt. Whitney at 14,505 feet. It is the tallest mountain in the contiguous United States! We stopped at Tuolumne Meadows Lodge to say hello to our daughter, then continued on past Tanaya Lake, Olmstead Point, and into the valley to search for our Sierra Club volunteer tent-camping site.

The valley is shockingly beautiful. Huge cliffs of granite, beautiful waterfalls, and meadow vistas kept us busy sight-seeing. We located our tent-camping location in Lower Pines which was spacious, clean, and beautiful beyond words. We even enjoyed a small visitor, a black bear, climbing a tree near our tent looking for apples.

After setting up our tent and introducing ourselves to the Yosemite Conservancy volunteers next to us, we proceeded to ride our bikes to the Yosemite Conservation Heritage Center (YCHC). It was a short ride – maybe only seven minutes!

Although free shuttle buses are available within the park, we loved the freedom to explore and enjoy using our mountain bikes.

Finally, we entered the building and met Dr. Bonnie J. Gisel, a historian serving as curator for the last 18 years, who gave us a tour and history of Sierra Club’s “Home in the Valley.” We learned that Ansel Adams was the first curator in 1919 when the building was moved to its current location. We were honored to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the building’s current location (1919 to 2019) and were invited to make a birthday card. The building has a wonderful library with historical exhibits, environmental books for all ages, and a children’s corner as well. It welcomes visitors from all over the world and provides a quiet place to research and read.

Our job, as Sierra Club volunteers, was to meet and greet those visitors and welcome them to Sierra Club’s “Home in the Valley.” We answered questions about the building, Yosemite Valley, John Muir, and Sierra Club. It was a delightful experience with lots of opportunity to read, discuss, and interact with the public.

On Friday, the last day of our one-week commitment, we set up for the evening program. These programs are offered free to the public throughout the summer on Fridays and Saturdays. We were thrilled to experience a night with children’s author and illustrator, Steven Riley. Excellent good fun!

We loved this volunteer experience so much that we’ve already signed up for next year. If you are interested in more information, feel free to contact me (m.meyncke@gmail.com), or check out the Sierra Club link: https://www.sierraclub.org/yosemite-heritage-center/volunteer#
S o was titled an epic poem many centuries ago. In this case, however, make that “Paradise Valley Lost”; or for those who remember Joni Mitchell, this time it appears that Paradise won’t be paved. On August 21, the Riverside County Planning Commission, at its sixth hearing on the proposed Paradise Valley Specific Plan, voted 4-1 to recommend denial of the project to the Board of Supervisors. Score one for conservation.

Glorious Land Company proposed “Paradise Valley” as a new town of about 8,500 homes and more than 1 million square feet of commercial development miles from nowhere sandwiched between Joshua Tree National Park and the Mecca Hills Wilderness well east of the Coachella Valley. It’s not over until the Board of Supervisors votes on the project and officially rejects it, but it is a huge step forward that the Planning Commission recommended denial of the project, citing these major problems with it:

• Inconsistency with the Coachella Valley Multiple Species Habitat Conservation Plan (CVMSHCP).
• Lack of adequate ingress and egress to the project site for use in emergencies.
• The project benefits would not outweigh the project impacts.
• Inadequate affordable housing.
• Lack of clarity and certainty as to the availability of electric power.

These are all points that the Sierra Club and other members of the Coalition to Save Shavers Valley (the geographic name of the area where the Paradise Valley project was proposed), including social justice organizations from the eastern Coachella Valley and an array of other environmental organizations, made at the previous hearings and in writing. The compelling testimony from so many was heard this time.

Thank you to the many Sierra Club members who wrote letters in response to past Palm and Pine articles and Action Alerts and/or attended one of the hearings. To help ensure that the Board of Supervisors denies the project, it would be very helpful for members to email the Riverside County Supervisors with a simple email message such as, “Please follow the recommendation of the Planning Commission and DENY the proposed Paradise Valley Specific Plan on the southern boundary of Joshua Tree National Park. For all the reasons cited by the Planning Commission, this project should not be allowed to go forward.”

The email addresses for the Supervisors are as follows:

district1@rivco.org (Supervisor Kevin Jeffries)
district2@rivco.org (Supervisor Karen Spiegel) ddistrict3@rivco.org (Supervisor Chuck Washington) ddistrict4@rivco.org (Supervisor Manuel Perez)
district5@rivco.org (Supervisor Jeff Hewitt)

We look forward to reporting favorable results from the Board meeting, which is expected to occur in October or November. Even then it still won’t be over. Ultimately, we need to work with conservation agencies and organizations to bend every effort to acquiring this property so that it will be permanently protected as part of the Multiple Species Reserve System established by the CVMSHCP.

Winter is rapidly approaching early this year and we’re having our last General Meeting on October 17th. Our speaker is Dr. Hugh Bialecki, DMD who will get us up to date on the Nestlè water “Arrowhead Mountain Spring Water” removal from our San Bernardino National Forest and the action from our California State Water Resources Control Board. He will also give an update on the Checker of the Woods proposed project that will impact mountain traffic circulation, biological impacts on the threatened and endangered species, bulldozing 300,000 cubic yards of earth by removing all vegetation.

Dr. Bialecki and four other local citizens have spearheaded the opposition to an expired Special Use Permit from the S.B.N.F. that enabled Nestlè to continually divert water from Strawberry Creek that is sold and bottled as “Arrowhead Mountain Spring Water.” He is the president of Save Our Forest Association (SOFA) – our mountaintop neighbors.

December will bring the tallying of the ExCom election and then our annual “Holiday Gathering” for the ExCom. It’s a wonderful evening together with our significant others gathering in a local restaurant for a relaxed time. It’s also a “Holiday Gathering” for the ExCom. Happy Holidays, Everyone!

Santa Margarita Group
By Elena/Maryellen Garcia, Ph.D.

A Frenetic Fall Follows the Summer—But we keep smiling!

The long, hot summer appears to be behind us—we make no assumptions, however—and the Santa Margarita Group is now hunkers down for Fall—more elegantly known as Autumn. We anticipate it will bring cooler temperatures to the IE—again, no assumptions—more conducive to walks and hikes in nature. The Fall is also the start of our general meetings programming, kicked off strikingly by our September 12th speaker, Ms. Lesley Gregory, on our local earthquake faults. (Oops. Pun alert!) Other speakers are scheduled as follows: October 10, Alden Hough on permaculture; November 14, Brook Sarson on rain water harvesting, and December 12, Karen Doyle on saving the wolves. (For more details on speakers and topics, readers will get monthly email blasts or may contact us using the information provided at the end of this piece.)

Members of the Santa Margarita Group enthusiastically took part in the nation-wide climate change day on September 20th. The local protest took place at the Temecula Valley Hall, where we were joined by other activist groups. One of our newer members, Shaul Rosen-Rager, has a particular interest in climate change, hoping to found a local chapter of Citizens’ Climate Lobby.

How do we keep our butterflies and bees from extinction? Feed them! Our members had the opportunity to buy plants that would help them in that cause at our Native Plant Sale on October 5th. The site was the home of expert botanist Gordon Pratt in Anza, California. Dr. Pratt grows plants particularly suited to that purpose and makes them available annually. Our participation aided him in preparing and selling them, and we enjoyed lunch and music as a perk—in addition to receiving some of the profits, a win-win situation.

Our activities with the Santa Rosa Plateau Ecological Reserve suffered a setback as the result of the recent Tena Fire which burned almost 2,000 acres in the foothills west of Murrieta, early in September. It took out the bandwidth at the Plateau but left the Visitor Center intact. Importantly, much of the wildlife habitat was saved, but the Committee is closed to visitors indefinitely. Consequently, the annual Family Wildlife Day scheduled for November 2nd, a usual tabling opportunity for our Group, is cancelled this year. A long-standing interest of the SMG has been the promotion and coordination across cities of the Murrieta Creek Regional Trail (MCR). In reality, this is a collection of trails along the creek connecting Temecula, Murrieta, Wildomar and Lake Elsinore, primarily for walking, running and biking—as yet incomplete. (A full history of the region and this project can be found via a link on the City of Murrieta’s website.) Gary Oddi, Chair of the SMG’s Trails Committee, reports that Lake Elsinore has received grant money to extend the trails into its limits. The Wildomar connection will be via the Flood Control channel from Cuyonud Street to Sunrise. Still pending is a connection from Temecula to Murrieta. The SMG’s Outreach Committee has several iron in the fire already this year. A visit is planned for October 19th to Sky Mountain Institute off Elsinodo to follow our permaculture speaker on the 10th. The first Sierra Sunday will be on November 10th in Lake Elsinore. We’ll meet at the levee, behind Storm Stadium, at 11 am for a walk with an avian expert. The group will have lunch at Vincenzo’s Olive Garden afterwards. (For more info and to sign up, see the contact information provided elsewhere at the end.) Our Winter Party will be held on Sunday, December 14th at Meadowview Club House at 3:00. Details will be shared at our monthly meetings and via email blasts. And we are getting a jump on planning for our annual Earth Day Fair, to be held on Saturday April 4, 2020, from 11:00 to 4:00 at Vail Headquarters.

Our Hikes Committee, chaired by Bob Audibert, continues to solicit new members, particularly those who will train to become leaders. The Sierra Club provides opportunities for the training of leaders. The Political Committee, chaired by Elena Garcia, continues to monitor the proposed LEAPS project, which we fear would compromise the ecology of Lake Elsinore. Briefly, it would use water from the lake to be put in storage in a reservoir in the Cleveland National Forest to generate electricity for distribution elsewhere at a later time. A more detailed description can be found online at the website: Inland Empire WATERKEEPER. Our Education Committee, headed by Teri Biancar, is organizing a SMER Science Day for November 9th.

Moreno Valley General Plan Update:
In the coming months the City of Moreno Valley will begin the process of updating its current general plan and land use map. This update could have critical impacts on our city and even your neighborhood. If there is vacant land anywhere near you, it is possible the city will propose to change the land use from increasing housing density to more warehouse development zones. It is highly recommended that you be added to their list to take part in this process and add your concerns and comments. Please send your email address to all of the following: MV Community Development Director (Richard Sandzimier, richardsa@moval.org), the city Planning Official (Patty Nevins, pattyn@moval.org) and Moreno Valley City Clerk (Pat Jacquez-Nares, CityClerk@moval.org)

World Logistics Center (WLC): The 40.6 sq ft World Logistic Center (WLC) warehouse project would cover 2,610 acres, an area larger than three New York City Central Parks or 26 Disneyland. The Superior Court ruled in the environmental community’s favor in June 2018 on several issues, but we lost on the very important Greenhouse Gas (GHG) emissions issue. On May 20, 2019, our Earthjustice attorneys, who are also representing the San Bernardino Valley Audubon Society, Center for Biological Diversity, Center for Community Action and Environmental Justice and Coalition for Clean Air, filed their opening brief to appeal the Superior Courts decision solely as it relates to the faulty GHG analysis. The city and the project developer, Highland Fairview, has filed a cross-appeal of the Superior Court’s decision and were recently granted an extension to an unspecified date.

Villages of Lakeview (VOL): This master planned community with its 8,725 dwelling units development on the south edge of the San Jacinto Wildlife Area, was approved by the Riverside County Board of Supervisors this past spring. A coalition of environmental groups represented by the Center for Biological Diversity has challenged this project and its environmental findings. A hearing on the merits of the lawsuit was postponed and will be scheduled sometime in the future.

Donations Needed: Your donations are essential to our litigation against the Villages of Lakeview, the World Logistics Center as well as other projects in our area. Please make checks payable to “Sierra Club” with a notation for WLC and/or VOL or undesignated. Please send to: Sierra Club—Moreno Valley Group, P.O. Box 1325, Moreno Valley, CA 92556-1325. We sincerely appreciate and thank all of you who have taken time to donate to the litigation fund! We appreciate your generous donations.

December Chapter Meeting Features Historic Ukraine and the Chernobyl Disaster

Ladd and Gail Seekins will present a two-part program at the December 3 chapter meeting. In the first part, they will discuss historic Ukraine, from the founding of Kiev in the 10th Century up to the current war with the Russian-backed separatists. They will illustrate their presentation with the photographs they took while travelling in Ukraine this past August and September. The second part of the presentation will take up the Chernobyl nuclear disaster. The Seekins toured Chernobyl and the exclusion zone. They will attempt to draw some conclusions on the dangers of nuclear power, which has been offered as a replacement for fossil fuels to combat climate change.

The Seekins toured Ukraine by car for nearly four weeks, visiting Kiev, Lviv, Kolomiya, Vinnytsya, Uman, Odessa, the Danube Delta and Chernihiv as well as Chernobyl. Side trips included the Mukacheve Castle and Ivanovsky. Their photographs will include the Ukraine’s most significant historic sites. Part of the program will take up the revolutions of 1991 and 2014. A improperly conducted test caused an uncontrolled chain reaction in Chernobyl Reactor Four on April 26, 1986. A superheated steam explosion and a nuclear core fire released clouds of radioactive materials which were eventually carried over much of Europe. Eventual deaths due to exposure may reach 9,000 to 16,000 according to some models.

Chernobyl Reactors One, Two and Three, the same design as Reactor Four, continued to operate after the disaster. The last one ceased operations in 2000, nine years after Ukraine broke away from the Soviet Union. The site also includes uncompleted Reactors Five and Six. Between 2010 and 2016, a permanent containment structure was built on rails next to Reactor Four at a cost of approximately one billion dollars. Designed to slide over the quickly built “sarcophagus” over the reactor, the new steel containment, 344 by 843 feet, is the largest movable structure ever built. It is designed to last 100 years. The plan is for the reactor and sarcophagus to be dismantled robotically. The radioactive core and surrounding ruins, along with the radioactive parts of Reactors One, Two and Three, are to be permanently stored in structures yet to be built.

The Seekins visited the public area near the reactor site and the ruins of the abandoned city of Pripyat, two kilometers from the reactor, and an abandoned village in the 30-kilometer Exclusion Zone. All residents living in the Exclusion Zone were evacuated immediately after the reactor explosion, leaving all their possessions behind except for money and legal documents. Looters later stripped the cities and villages of anything of value, leaving devastation in their wake. Much of the looted goods were sold in town markets to people who did not know about the radiation contamination.
